

Helping Your Business Blossom

A New Tool for Your Business

Through extensive research, development and trialling, funded by ESF Equal, we have produced an innovative toolkit that can be used for all sectors of industry both public and private alike.

Our new toolkit has already proven to be a valuable and much demanded device for use as a basis for:

-  Company Appraisals
-  Skills identification
-  Identification of personnel development opportunities within a workforce.
-  Re-evaluating your team's skills and competences to identify commercial growth opportunities
-  Identifying strengths in those returning to the workplace

Speaking your language

In addition other tools available will include the innovative “Introduction to Self Employment” training, a very practical method of testing the feasibility of start-up opportunities, and the pioneering English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) on-line training.
